ORDER OF DETENTION PENDING TRIAL

On May 12, 2015, at the Initial Appearance of Defendant, Cesar Atanacio-Antonio, this Court addressed the matter of his detention. Having considered the report of the Pretrial Services Officer recommending detention and confirmed that Atanacio-Antonio is presently subject to a detainer lodged against him by the Immigration and Customs Enforcement Agency which currently provides for no bond, the Court makes the following findings of fact and conclusions of law.

Since Atanacio-Antonio has no legitimate claim to a liberty interest that would justify an immediate or meaningful detention determination under 18 U.S.C. § 3142(f), it is the ORDER of this Court that good cause exists to postpone the need for such a determination until such time as Atanacio-Antonio maintain a legitimate liberty interest before this Court. See United States v. King, 818 F.2d 112, 114 (1st Cir. 1987), see also United States v. Coonan, 826 F.2d 1180, 1183 (2^d Cir. 1987) Accordingly, the Court finds that there is no need to make a detention determination at this time.

It is, therefore, ORDERED that the Defendant, Cesar Atanacio-Antonio, be, and is hereby, COMMITTED to the custody of the Attorney General or his designated representative for confinement in a corrections facility.

It is further ORDERED that the Defendant, Cesar Atanacio-Antonio, SHALL be afforded a reasonable opportunity for private consultation with defense counsel.

It is further ORDERED that upon Order of a Court of the United States or upon request of an attorney for the Government, the person in charge of the corrections facility SHALL deliver Cesar Atanacio-Antonio to the United States Marshal for the purpose of an appearance in connection with a Court proceeding.

DONE at Houston, Texas, this _____ 12th _____ day of May, 2015.

John R. Froeschner
United States Magistrate Judge
